Dear Parents / Carers,

Earlier this week I informed the school's governing body of my decision to retire at the end of the summer term, August 2018.

August will see me complete ten years as head teacher at Mary Webb School. The time has flown by and I can honestly say that it has been an absolute joy and privilege to have worked with the young people, staff and governors that make up the Mary Webb community.

I obviously wish the governors every success in their role of appointing a new head teacher. Martyn Cribb, chair of the school's governing body, will keep the whole school community informed of progress with regard to this. However, until the summer it is business as usual!

Yours sincerely

Mr A J Smith
