UNIFORM POLICY

Each student at Mary Webb School is expected to wear the uniform as prescribed in the school brochure. Certain fashion styles of school clothing are not suitable as they pose a health and safety issue, eg high heels, backless shoes and toeless sandals. The governors expect staff to take account of such issues when checking uniform.

The uniform was carefully chosen by the governors and staff. It is both smart and attractive as well as being practical. We believe that uniform has a unifying factor and enables differences in social and economic background to be erased in school.

Students are encouraged to wear their school uniform with pride and as an outward symbol of their commitment to the school community.
